

Randy McIlvoy joined KPRC 2 as Sports Director and anchor in 2004 and is a native Houstonian.

Randy graduated from Bellaire High School in 1985, and then went on to Sam Houston State University, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree four years later in 1989.

McIlvoy's television career began in 1989 with stops in Port Arthur, Beaumont and Dallas before arriving at KPRC.

Randy is a four-time Emmy Award winner for top sportscaster in Texas and has been nominated 7 additional times along with honors from the Texas Associated Press Broadcasters Association.

He moved back to Houston from Dallas, where he spent six years covering the Big 12 Conference, high school sports and every professional team in the region as a lead anchor for Fox Sports Net's Southwest Sports Report.

In his current role as Sports Director/Sports Anchor, you can see him on KPRC 2 Sports at 5pm, 6 p.m. and 10 p.m., along with Sports Sunday each Sunday night at 11pm. . Each fall, Randy hosts Houston Texans Gameday with Head Coach Bill O'Brien and serves as host of the popular Friday Football Frenzy. He stays busy with coverage of the Houston Texans, Houston Rockets and 2017 World Series Champion Houston Astros along with the Dynamo and College teams in the region.

In his spare time, Randy also serves as the voice of the Southland Conference along with Play by Play work on the ESPN Family of networks, Fox Sports Net and others.

Randy and his wife, Tammy have been married 29 years have two daughters, Courtney a graduate of Texas A&M and Keely who is a Sophomore at Baylor. . In his free time, he is an avid golfer and saltwater fisherman and loves to travel.

Randy and Tammy are active members of Sugar Creek Baptist Church in Missouri City/Sugar Land. Both are also co-Founders of Logos Prep Academy in Sugar Land which opened in 2006. Tammy is the Logos Prep Head of School.